Subject:-Participation/Bids for appointment of Valuer for 27th, 28th & 29th Actuarial Valuation of EPS Fund – Regarding

Sir,

The Employees Pension Scheme, 1995 is a statutory scheme of the Government of India, administered by Employees' Provident Fund Organization (EPFO). Para 32 of the Scheme provides for the Central Government to have annual valuation of the Employees' Pension Fund.

2. Accordingly, the process for appointment of the Actuary for conducting the 27th, 28th and 29th actuarial valuation of the Employees' Pension Fund has been initiated.
3. The Request for Proposal (RFP) containing the detailed terms of reference, scope of work, schedule, and bidding requirements has been published on the GeM portal. The eligibility conditions, qualifications, and disqualifications applicable to the bidders are clearly specified in Para 3 (Qualifications/Disqualifications) of the RFP (copy enclosed for ready reference).
4. It is requested that the Institute may kindly circulate this information among eligible Fellow Members and actuarial professionals to ensure wider participation in the bidding process.
5. The bid closes on 29.01.2026 and interested eligible firms/actuaries registered with the Institute of Actuaries of India may participate through the GeM portal within the stipulated time.

Yours faithfully,

(Aprajita Jaggi)
Addl Central PF Commissioner (Pension)
